Armistice 100 year commemorations

Armistice Day 100 year commemorations took place around the district on Sunday.

At Marton Park, a parade of RSA members and locals made its way to the WW1 cenotaph in the park's flower garden.

Marton RSA president Alan Buckendahl and WW2 veteran Duncan Hart, placed a wreath on at the foot of the memorial where the names of the fallen from Marton are listed. The RSA prayer of remembrance was read. Trumpeter Barry Williams played Reveille and ended with The Last Post and a karakia was performed.

At 11am, the Marton fire siren sounded with several blasts, marking the beginning and end of a minute's silence.

Commemorations were also held in Bulls, Turakina, Hunterville, Mangaweka and Taihape.

Hunterville remembers with awards

On the 11th hour, of the 11th day, of the 11th month 1918, an Armistice came into effect and the guns fell silent in Europe, effectively ending the First World War. Hunterville RSA held a 100th Armistice commemorative service at the cenotaph in Hunterville, where a good number of local people, those from the wider community and even those passing through gathered to show their respect to those who made the ultimate sacrifice in the service of their country. Hunterville RSA President David Cole managed proceedings, supported by guest speaker Staff Sgt (ret) Chris Jansen, a 30 year NZDF Army veteran. Prayers were offered by Pastor Trevor Jurgens and the Last Post and Reveille was played by Emma Lovelock, which added great significance to the occasion. Following the Armistice Service, members and guests of the Hunterville RSA attended the annual luncheon in Hunterville. The meal was prepared by the Hunterville Home and Schools Association and enjoyed by all present. Two awards were made during the luncheon. Graham Peacock was awarded a life membership of the Hunterville RSA for his service as a member of the RSA and executive committee over many years. The Hunterville Volunteer Fire Brigade was also recognized for its many years of supporting the RSA with the Royal New Zealand Returned and Services Association National Certificate of Appreciation, accepted by Hunterville Chief Fire Officer Shane Voelkerling.

The Warratahs are coming to town

Legendary NZ band, The Warratah's is coming to Marton. Musician Brian Baillie and Dave Wilson from McVerry Crawford Motor Group have combined forces to bring The Warratahs to Marton Players Theatre, Saturday 8 December. Brian Baillie has been working with Marton Players Theatre to bring musicians to town since early 2017. He says performers love the opportunity to play in a more intimate environment. In July, Paul Ubana Jones played to a packed house and last weekend the Rag Poets delighting theatre goers. "We've had a great response from the community to these shows - we're seeing all sorts of people come out to relax and listen to great live music," says Brian Baillie. The Warratahs performance comes hot on the heels their recent nationwide tour during which they released their new album 'Drivin' Wheel', a 24 track compilation spanning the years from 1988 to the present day, including old favourites - Hands Of My Heart, Maureen and The Only Game In Town. Dave Wilson says McVerry Crawford Motor Group was keen to get in behind bringing a "big band" to Marton. "It's great that our community can enjoy performers that you might only usually hear in cities or big centres. This will be a fantastic night out." Tickets for The Warratahs are $45pp and can be purchased from McVerry Crawford Motor Group Marton. The audience is limited to 120 and fans are advised to book their seats early.

An RNZRSA National Certificate of Appreciation was presented to the Hunterville Volunteer Fire Brigade by David Cole.

VIEWPOINT

Waste Disposal

Would the Rangitikei councillors who are so keen to change our rubbish – recycling collection please think again. Not all Rangitikei ratepayers live close to town or in town with small sections or own a SUV, ute or trailer. Over the Marton Junction/James Wilson Park side of town our sections are very large, big lawns, gardens, fruit trees etc and older owners. To carry containers with glass items, push a wheelie bin and a third container for ? would mean three trips to the roadside and three back to the house yard. Also, what would happen to our garden waste, lawn clippings and rose prunings? I thought Rangitikei District Council was trying to encourage new businesses to the area!

If this new system is enforced we will lose a great family (rubbish collection) business situated on the corner of Main St and Matai St. This family has built a great friendly business, spending thousands of dollars on equipment etc. We locals do not want this business to close. If the likes of Higgins won the contract for the new system, what a mess our district will become. They can't even keep Nga Tawa Rd free from rubbish.
Loraine Pearson, Marton.

UCOL Student Achievement

Sustained improvements in student course completion rates at UCOL continue - increasing from 73% in 2012 to 79% in 2017. The Tertiary Education Commission has released 2017 results for all polytechnics, showing that UCOL students continue to do well. Dr Jerry Shearman, Exec.Dir. Ed. and Applied Research at UCOL says the results are a testament to the strength of UCOL's teaching and learning, working alongside students and supporting them. "UCOL's performance exceeds the polytechnic sector median in three out of four categories. For example, 41% of UCOL students go on to higher levels of study following a Level 1 to 4 qualification, well above the polytechnic sector median of 36% and the tertiary sector median of 28%. UCOL students also stick around, with 72% of UCOL students re-enrolling after their first year of study, 9% ahead of the polytechnic sector median at 63%. UCOL student course completion rates are steady at 79%, just behind the sector median of 81%. "UCOL continues to be a provider of high-quality tertiary education, supporting students to develop their full potential and experience real outcomes," he says.

Whanganui DHB and Sport Whanganui launch Fit For Surgery, Fit for Life programme

WDHB and Sport Whanganui have launched a ground-breaking Fit for Surgery, Fit for Life programme to help patients lose weight and improve their fitness levels before elective surgery. Led by WDHB head anaesthetist Marco Meijer, the programme was developed in partnership with Sport Whanganui and local GPs who came on board very quickly once they saw how well it fits with their message 'prevention is better than cure'. Concerned that overweight patients increase the risk of developing medical complications (including slow recovery after general anaesthetic, blood clots, breathing difficulties, wound infections and complications with pain relief) during and after surgery, Dr Meijer established a project group to develop a programme that would have long-term benefits for patients. "The aim of the Fit for Surgery, Fit for Life programme is to bring about a lifestyle change that will see significantly overweight patients reduce their weight and lift their fitness levels for surgery while continuing to maintain these changes for the rest of their life," Dr Meijer says. "Hospital staff and GPs refer patients to Sport Whanganui where Fit for Surgery, Fit for Life navigator and registered nurse Christine Taylor assesses the patients and develops individual care plans which include referrals to appropriate services to optimise their health prior to hip or knee surgery." Mrs Taylor says she works alongside the patients advocating for them; providing advice and motivation and referring them to appropriate community support services such as a dietitian, physiotherapist, Fit for Surgery, Fit for Life activity coordinator Deb Byers or a psychologist. At present the Fit for Surgery, Fit for Life programme is applied to patients who are candidates for elective hip and knee surgery. Dr Meijer says there are plans to roll the programme out for further elective operations in the near future. He says in the three weeks since the programme was launched, close to 10 patients have been referred to Sport Whanganui – a number expected to grow steadily as the programme is extended to other surgical specialties.

Project Marton AGM

Along with all the formal procedures, this year's Project Marton AGM included inspiring guest speakers and highlighted the positive undertakings the charitable organisation has completed over the past 12 months.

This year, Project Marton co-ordinator Cath Ash spearheaded the movement to employ two additional staff and these roles were filled by Stephanie Shaw – administration assistant and Fiona Moorhouse – communications assistant. The three staff equate to a full-time position. Cath Ash says, "We hope to expand their hours, so they can dedicate even more time to making Marton a great place to live, work and play. The team is working towards that goal and truly appreciate every bit of support they receive."

Acknowledgement was given to funding providers and the RDC for the MOU which enable the Project Marton team to create vibrant events, continue delivering activities and community initiatives, as well as supporting community organisations and individuals.

Danielle Morehu was re-elected as chair, Jasmin Vanderwerff as treasurer, Raewyn Timmins as secretary and Tim Duxfield, Felix Bell, Hazel Gallagher and Kelly Widdowson make up the remainder of the committee.

Guest speakers, Mikayla Severinson from Rangitikei College and Nga Tawa students Bridget Bone (head girl), Lydia Whyte (head of humanities) and Daisy Power (head of sport) all paid tribute to the suffragette movement; highlighting how women of the district had helped provide for opportunities of today. Financially, Project Marton is in a stronger position than previous years due to its new charitable status, which allows it to apply for a greater range of grants. Additionally, all donations to Project Marton, entitle the donor to claim a 33% tax deduction.

If you would like to make a donation towards the great work the Project Marton team does in the community, please get in touch with them on 063277633 or www.martonnz.com

Marton Friendship Club

A good turn up for quiz day, organised by Deana and John Scarbrough. Topics can be many and varied, last week was history, geography and animal. A lot of fun and laughter as school was a long time ago. Just listening to the Melbourne Raceday results, not many were very successful. Our quiz was much more interesting. Raffles were won by: Thelma Lockwood, Wendy Lee, Melva Brinkman, Deana Scarbrough and Bill Gill. Entertainment for this Friday will be John White, our local Marton country singer, up there with the best. Visitors welcome. Afternoon tea at the end of day. Hall open 12.30pm for lunch; bring your own. Main programme begins at 2pm. We are in Morris St. See you there.

FROM THE PULPIT

How tragic and sad it is when planes disappear into the oceans killing all on board and when individuals go on shooting sprees killing and maiming innocent people. Lives are cut short with family and friends left grieving.

We may not think about it or dwell upon it but everyday we run the gauntlet of life and death.

Wherever we go and in whatever we do there are potential life threatening dangers. Some may say it is chance, good or bad luck. Others may say it is karma. Some may attribute it to good or evil and even judgment. The truth is we don't have all the answers all the time and I don't think anyone ever said 'life is fair'.

Here is an interesting fact. Psalm 118 is right in the centre of God's Word, the Bible. There are 594 chapters before Ps. 118 and 594 chapters after Ps. 118. Add 594 to 594 and you get 1188. Psalm 118 v8 says 'It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in man'.

Entrusting our lives to the Lord and His Word assures us that whatever takes place and whenever we can get through it, even when it hurts and seems unfair. Bad memories and physical scars will not disappear but will become only testimonies to what we have overcome. Phil. 4:13 'I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength'.

Rom. 8:28 'and we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose'.

God's plan is for all mankind to be saved but it is up to each individual to accept and receive His plan. Acts 16:31 'Believe in the Lord Jesus and you shall be saved, you and your household'.

Marton Lions Club

The Marton Lions Club recently held their annual Junior Speechmakers Contest. We had eleven contestants competing in both the junior section, up to year 6, and the senior section, up to Year 7 and 8, who represented five the primary schools. The subject for the seniors was: A Well-Known Person Who Is Still Alive, That You Respect And Look Up To.

Contestants were given two minutes to present their prepared speech and no more than three minutes.

In the junior section, their subject was: Schools Have Too Many Holidays. They were given the same time frames as the seniors, to present their prepared speech. The seniors were required to do an impromptu speech for which they were given one minute to prepare and one minute to present, their subject was Plastic. The winner of the senior section was Sarah Connelly from Clifton School and in second place was Cole Anderson from James Cook School. The junior winner was Bronson Belk from Marton School and the winner of the impromptu section was Letaua Kuki from James Cook School. Sarah Connelly went on to compete in the finals, held in Hawera, she wasn't placed but enjoyed the experience. Overall, it was a very entertaining evening, with some very good speeches presented.

Marton Arts and Crafts

The Poppies on Parade project continues, the whole centre is creating, so we have pottery, embroidered, crocheted, knitted, felted, fabric, cushions, paintings, print and many more varieties of poppies. Members have donated works to aid both Marton RSA and Marton Arts and Crafts Centre. All will be on display and for sale from March at the Marton library. Microwave Glass-Fusing and Rangitikei Country Quilters were a hive of industrious creativity on Sunday. Stunning decorations emerged from the microwave kilns, with tutor Marion Grinstead well able to deal with the little quirks that can happen in the kiln. Participants had a heap of fun. Sneaky and curious peeks into RCQ who were holding a Kite Making workshop - 14 quilting members were learning from international kite designer Robert van Weers. Sewing machines were humming as they stitched their kites together. In the afternoon the first flying lesson was done at the local park, with not much wind kites took off... a magic sight! Still lots to do. We have an afternoon tea this Sunday from 1 pm to 4 pm - bring a plate and enjoy a cuppa.

It's all go for the Artfull Christmas Bonanza, Stall holders are being sought to fill space on 9 December. Anyone who creates handmade/homemade is a local artist or artisan can have a stall. Contact Sharon 327 7114 or Marion mvbiggles@hotmail.com for application form.

Outside the Box

Lend me your ears

When troubles strike, we often get angry with those closest to us. As we go through a rough patch with friendships, work or school, we easily become irritated and short tempered with our loved ones. We might share our troubles with those closest to us and instead of listening and really hearing us, we might find ourselves on the receiving end of unsolicited advice.

I remember once, stopping my mum mid-advice; telling her that I don't want to hear what I should be doing next. I just wanted a hug from her! Before this day, our communication often ended in frustration. Advice could make matters worse for the person experiencing the trouble. What they need most is to be heard; to know someone truly listened to their story and understood the full meaning and the emotional fallout of the personal issue.

Do you want to really help someone close to you when he/she is experiencing difficult times? Listen carefully. Make them feel that you heard. Validate their feelings (even if it is the 53rd time you have heard the same story). Provide hugs and tea, if appropriate. It's only after we feel heard that we might be ready to figure out the next step - with or without advice.

If you feel you are getting too much advice from those close to you and you need to figure out what to do for yourself, consider giving us a call.

Taihape Musicians Club -70s Rewind Christmas Party - featuring local musicians and disco DJ, playing their favourite tunes from the 70s. Saturday December 1, $10 entry- doors open 7pm. Spot prizes for the funkier fancy dressers.

Mangaweka -Taihape observe Armistice Day

As well as many other events in the district to mark Armistice Day, the northern towns of Mangaweka and Taihape also put on displays and events to mark 100 years since the close of WW1.

In Taihape, people gathered at the Majestic Theatre to view the entire length of the Rangitikei Heritage Group's DVD 'Rangitikei Remembers.' Viewers watched stories and animated imagery from Turakina, Marton, Rata, Hunterville, Mangaweka, Taihape and surrounds - many of the accounts overlapping and giving a real sense of how tragically and bravely the men overseas and families left at home, coped with this defining chapter in NZ's history. The screening was followed by tea and biscuits and chats around several story boards displayed in the theatre foyer.

In Mangaweka, crosses representing the 33 local men killed in action from Mangaweka in WW1 were displayed under the New Zealand flag, outside the fire station, on Broadway's old historic street.

Both towns lived up to the ode... "we will remember them."

Nadia Blenkiron and her Little Art Show

Palmerston North artist, Nadia Blenkiron's exhibition opens this Sunday at the Yellow Church Gallery.

Mangaweka Yellow Church Gallery announces a major new art exhibition by Palmerston North artist, Nadia Blenkiron - opening at 1.30pm this Sunday 18 November. Pre-Christmas shoppers are welcome to attend this event and meet Nadia in person and enjoy complimentary drinks and nibbles, while viewing Nadia's extraordinary artworks.

Nadia is a renowned graphic artist, producing posters, clipart, and detailed drawings. This exhibition features large format, full-colour, framed pastel drawings of famous people, places and iconic advertising imagery. Her press release reads; "Nadia is ecstatic to present her Little Art Show! Experience her enchanting and eclectic collection of pastel art, filled with vibrant colour and energy - featuring recreations of art she loves - with Nadia's own whimsical and magical flavour added - expect the unexpected!"

Gallery owner Richard Aslett says, "Nadia was an award winner at the 2017 Mangaweka Fakes & Forgeries event, with all her three entries selling almost immediately during that exhibition. These works are on sale at extremely good prices and Nadia will also do exclusive commissions of something close to your heart. Make sure you visit the gallery to see just how talented she is."

Shoppers calling in to the Yellow Church Gallery can also browse many other artists' paintings, photography, prints, ceramics, art tiles, cards and curios, suitable as major gifts or stocking fillers. Cash, cheques (with ID) and internet banking are accepted. Gallery open weekends, most other days and by appointment.

TAIHAPE GOLF

The final of the Stratson match play trophy was battled out on a fine Armistice Day, between Alan Thomas and Nick McGuinn. McGuinn got off to a costly, nervous start, gifting a few too many holes to the consistent 10 handicapper Thomas, which included a shank on the par five second. The 14 handicapper McGuinn played himself to being 4 down, with 5 to play, before he launched his game into attack - coming home 1 under the card, in the next 4 holes, to be all square playing the 18th. Thomas held his nerve and drained a 25 foot putt on the 18th, for birdie, to take the match 1up, after McGuinn over clubbed his approach, leaving himself short sided and having to settle for a par. The ladies had their final of the Jean Horton memorial tray between Diane Mickleson and Denise Millner. The match was also contested in a tight battle, with Mickleson winning on the 19th, after being 2 down with 3 to play. In the haggles, James Fannin won on the toss, with 42 points over Danny Mickleson. Alan Thomas had 41 points, Nick McGuinn 40, Gary Thomas 39, Richard Millner and Denis Robertson 37, Ken Cribb 36, JJ Walker and John Gilbert 35 and Denise Millner made 34. Twos were recorded by Richard Millner on 6, Diane Mickleson and James Fannin on 12, Nick McGuinn and Matt Thomas on 14 and Hamish Rose on 17. Richard Millner, to his surprise, took home the longest putt novelty on the 18th, after sinking a 15 foot snake of a putt. This Sunday, the team of Matt Booth, Danny Mickleson and James Fannin are representing Taihape in the Chamberlain shield at Waimarino and, at home, there is a haggles teeing off at 12 noon.

RANGITIKEI HOCKEY U13 BOYS REP HOCKEY TEAM

By Amy McVerry, coach.
The 2018 rep hockey season has been another successful one for the U13 boys. The team came together at the beginning of term 3 with players from Bulls, James Cook, South Makirikiri, Hunterville and Huntley clubs. With a squad of 15 players, we had 6 players returning from 2017. Lead up games went well and, although the campaign was short, the team gelled quickly. Captain for 2018 was Blair Simpson and vice-captain Jano Klopffer – both boys were returning for their 3rd season with the team; adding valuable experience to the squad. The team was impeccably managed by Neil Simpson and we also received coaching support from Hayley Grant, Caroline Watson and Oscar McVerry throughout the season. The boys had a tough start to the tournament, with a 2 all draw against Manawatu, followed by a 3-0 loss to Hawkes Bay – eventual tournament winners. But our lads never gave up and fought hard to finish, with wins over Poverty Bay, Wanganui, Wairarapa and Taranaki and a 2 all draw against Wellington – finishing in 3rd place overall in the 2018 Curtis Cup. MVP for the Rangitikei team was Jonathan Jamieson. We were also very lucky to be able to take a Rangitikei referee and FAHS student Zak Guiniven with us on tournament. Zak was not only a mentor to the boys during the tournament week but also a fantastic representative of Rangitikei hockey with his umpiring. Thank you to all the generous sponsors who allowed out boys the opportunity to take part in this tournament, to all the families for getting your boys to and from training games and to the boys – you were awesome! All the best for your future in hockey. 2018 boys representative prize recipients: the Hardy and Uncles Family Trophy for most improved player – Jano Klopffer. The Todd Sutton shield for best attacker – Blair Simpson – also top goal scorer 2018. The Judd-Tate Cup for the most consistent player – Owen Evans. The Smith family Cup for the MVP – Jonathan Jamieson.

BULLS BOWLING CLUB

Last Tues the ladies showed their mettle, winning their games against Hokowhitu in the weekly Elizabeth Walker triples. Well done girls. Thursday, Rodger Homes was played in the afternoon only. The east /west games played on the Sat proved successful, with 4 out of 6 games won. However, there is some doubt as to whether they will continue to be played in the coming weeks. The men haven't major games at the moment. Sunday proved lovely and sunny and both men & ladies turned out in force to play the Ian Pudney trophy, men against women. The first games resulted in a dead heat, which then put several to the test in a playoff. The team of Gay Baxter, Yvonne Moss and Anne Connelly won 7 to 5 against the men's team of Owen Canton, Mike Ansell and Kevin Sprott. A lovely social afternoon; lots of fun. Next Saturday will see the first day of the ladies' pairs underway and some are getting their eye in at the Flying Dr's on Wednesday afternoon for the hams on Dec. 2. Anyone wishing to play; organise your 4's A/gender team and contact the club on 322 1284 or bullsbowls@gmail.com - still a few slots left. Also, advise us if you would like to attend Bulls Bowling Club centennial next April- to the same address. Good bowling.

White Ribbon ride visiting Bulls

It's time to make some noise about preventing family harm. White Ribbon Ride – Lower North Island runs from Saturday 17 November to Sunday 25 November. In this region, the ride is on Tuesday 20 November from Palmerston North to Whanganui (172 km, 2 hrs 14 mins).

The local starts at Palmerston North, 9am- 10:30am at Oranga Tamariki, Te Au rere a te Tonga, 313 Church St, Palmerston North; then riding to Fielding (SH 54, 31.1 km, 32 mins) arriving at Hato Paora College, 314 Kimbolton Road, Rd 7, Cheltenham from 11.30am– 1pm. It leaves again for Bulls (SH 54 & 3, 34.4 km, 31 mins) arriving at 1:30 – 2:45pm at Bulls Primary School, Bridge St, Bulls – (entrance via 30 Watson St) and leaves for Whanganui (SH 3, 49 km, 39 mins) arriving at 5pm at Te Ao Hou Marae Whanganui, 366 Somme Parade, Aramoho, Whanganui.

White Ribbon hopes the roar of motorbikes will jolt our communities into taking action about men's violence towards women.

NZ has the highest reported rate of men's violence towards women in the developed world - a shocking statistic, highlighted by the fact that 41% of a frontline police officer's time is given to dealing with family harm.

"We need our men to step up and stand up," says White Ribbon rider and ambassador Takurua Tawera. "One in three women are affected by family violence in their lifetime and that is just unacceptable."

The White Ribbon Riders are generally a rugged, tough looking bunch, that delivers the anti-violence message for the White Ribbon campaign, in a week-long ride through some eighty communities. At each stop they speak and meet locals and talk about respectful relationships.

"We know that most men are not violent, but too often we don't speak out. This year we are asking men to stand up and take the pledge at www.whiteribbon.org.nz and choose one of eight actions. These actions support respectful relationships and get men actively participating in ending violence," says Mr Tawera.

White Ribon is asking men to.....

- * Listen and believe women.
- * Reflect on and change our behaviour.
- * Disrupt other men's violence towards women.
- * Treat women as equals.
- * Choose how, as men, we will act.
- * Talk to young men about breaking out of the man box.
- * Think about what we watch and the media we use.
- * Talk with young men about respectful relationships and pornography.

Mr Tawera says there is an open invitation to attend a White Ribbon event in your town, or to join the ride.
